Under the tutorship of Coach Grover Washabaugh and Assistant Coaches Dick Kelleher and Dave Boyd, the 1937 edition of the Westminster gridiron Titans aroused more student interest than a Blue and White grid team has in many years. Supporting last year's lettermen with a few promising freshmen, the 1937 eleven, averaging 165 pounds in the backfield and 175 on the line, provided many more thrills than the rather dismal record sheet shows.

After a 22-0 defeat at the hands of Bethany, the Titans saw a potential victory turned into a defeat by virtue of a blocked punt in the final quarter of the game with the California Vulcans. The game was played before a large crowd of Westminster alumni during a steady drizzle. A last-minute pass robbed the Blue and White of victory as Thiel came from behind to force a 14-14 tie at the home of the Lutherans.

Paced by Maffei and Valicenti in the backfield and Throop and Cap't. Susko on the line, the Titans gained a moral victory over their ancient rivals from Beaver Falls as they played a 6-6 stalemate. It was only in the final minute of play that substitute Dom Roselli of the Covenanters heaved a long pass to Johnston in the end zone robbing the Titans of victory. Stellar play was exhibited by Delon, Johnston, and Swetka, senior guard from Clairton.

Displaying a powerful offense, the Blue and White eleven defeated the Red Raiders from Edinboro by the decisive score of 28-6. Again it was Moe Maffei and Tony Valicenti who did most of the driving, but every member of the squad saw action before the final gun sounded. The Titan scoring spree featured drives of 70, 35, and 40 yards and a fumble recovered by Dan Mamula behind the Raider goal.

Allegheny's highly touted eleven snatched a hard-earned decision from the Titans before a Dad's day crowd of 3000. The lead seesawed back and forth through three periods before the 'Gators finally pushed over the winning touchdown. Both Titan touchdowns were scored by Maffei while the 'Gator scores were accounted for by Swanson. The margin of the victory was a well-placed field goal from the toe of Horace Lavelly. The power of both offenses kept the holiday crowd interested throughout the battle.

In the final encounter of the season, the Slippery Rock Teacher's aggregation defeated the Titans 13-0. Captain John Susko starred in the game as he made his final appearance in the Blue and White uniform.

The Titans were hampered throughout the season by a weak pass defense due to the stature of the backfield men, and in the latter part of the season by the absence of punter Harry Shoup. The campaign was paced by the offensive work of Valicenti, Maffei, and Laposki; by the defense of Miller, Youkers, and Bretthole, and by Captain Johnny Susko.

Basketball

The perennial towering Titans crashed the 1937-38 basketball season with another tri-state district championship and finished high among the best teams in the East. Coach Grover Washabaugh, in his initial cage season in college circles, directed the boys to 15 victories in a twenty-game schedule that boasted wins over Pitt, Villanova, Waynesburg, La Salle, Washington & Jefferson, and Geneva.

With a veteran squad that included Backus, Krivosh, Demo, Grubb, Gilliland, and Miller, Coach Washabaugh inaugurated the season in mid-December at Kent State University, at Kent, Ohio. The cross-state boys were no match for the Titans, who swamped the Ohio team, 59 to 29, with Demo and Miller having a field day.

Carnegie Tech claimed the first victory over the United Presbyterians at Pittsburgh, which saw the Titans miss 12 out of 19 throws from the foul line. Carnegie won by eight points.

The Slippery Rock duel was good and bad news for Westminster. The game brought out a new Titan star, Tommy Patton, rangy West Middlesex freshman, who bothered the Rockets so much that they were forced to give up under a thirteen point margin with most of the game being played by the freshmen. Early in the game, Ken Grubb, last year's Titan high point man, received a leg injury that kept him out of play for nearly the entire season.

At the home opener, the Bethany Bisons threw a scare into the locals, who left the ball game at the half in arrears. It was a new Westminster five that appeared on the hardwood the second period, and it gave the fans the best playing they have seen in years. The Titans rolled up 35 points within 15 minutes, with Mel Miller going on a rampage, and for over ten minutes the Bisons failed to make a field goal due to the superior back board work of Krivosh and Backus. Washabaugh withdrew the first team in favor of the subs, who ran the score up for the year's highest total - 66 points.

Geneva pulled the district's biggest upset by beating the Titans in a last-minute rally at the Beaver Falls arena before a capacity crowd. Westminster possessed the lead throughout the match until the last four minutes.

The Villanova-Westminster tilt made history. The Villanovans, conquerors of Temple, who in turn defeated Stanford and walked away with the Eastern Intercollegiate league crown, came to New Wilmington undefeated and with thirteen notches on their belt. Backus and Krivosh kept Duzminski and Montgomery, who were two of the outstanding players on the Atlantic coast, bottled up, and after the Villanova quintet had kept the lead in their favor for over a half-hour of play, they succumbed under the powerful defense of the Backus Krivosh duet, while Miller, Demo, and Patton took care of affairs at the other end of the court to triumph 44-38.

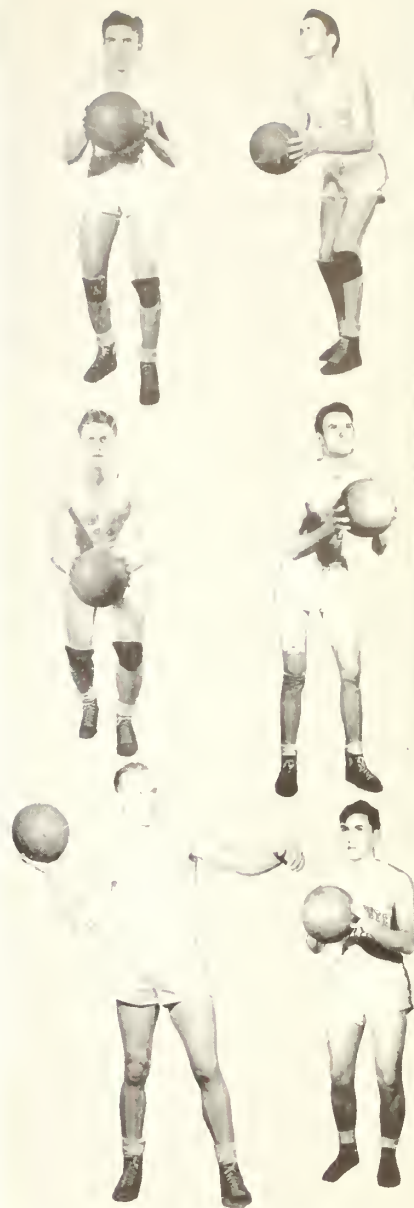

Only four days later, an Akron U. team turned back the Titans for their third loss in six starts, the worst streak the locals had suffered in years. After Westminster took a half-time lead by some dozen points, the Akronites made another of those story-book endings when a sub jumped off the Akron bench to score seven markers in ninety seconds. Endress of the Ohio five cooked the goose on a foul throw and a hooper, with fifteen seconds left to play.

On the first day of the new semester, Washabaugh accomplished what Westminster coaches have been trying to do again for years - beat Pitt. Thanks to Paul Backus and Andy Demo for the best court performances of the year. The game was as close as Titan fans have seen in a college generation. The score was knotted at eight different occasions and up to the waning moments of the match, when dependable Paul popped in a looper and a foul. Demo kept the Pitt defense groggy and contributed 20 points. It made district fans sit up and take notice of the Johnstown forward who threatened to take over the district scoring honors.

The Pitt game was the start of a big Titan rally which saw eleven out of the next twelve colleges go down for the count. Washington and Jefferson, who made their first appearance in New Wilmington in eight years, fell, 37-33. An eastern trip netted two out of three triumphs with the Titans bombarding West Chester and La Salle for wins, and losing to George Washington in the Nation's Capitol on a weary fourth day journey. The highly touted Waynesburg outfit, which was leading the district, gave way to the Washabaughmen, 50-44; Bethany following suit the next evening, 62-37, which gave the district lead to the Titans, and high scoring honors to Demo.

A stubborn Slippery Rock crew held the Titans to a 55-53 count, and a crowd that packed the local gym saw Westminster's second team chalk up a victory over Ray Sweeney's Youngstown college quint. Another full house witnessed the Westminster-Geneva fray with the locals settling matters because of that early season set-back. Youngstown fell again before the Titans for the second time within a week.

The Waynesburg Yellow Jackets, eager to get back into the race, could do no better than their previous engagement. Mercer Clark, last year's high scorer and menace to Andy Demo's record, failed to make a point as Backus and Krivosh turned in the greatest defensive game of their brilliant careers. But Carnegie threw a monkey wrench into the works, a few days later, and Rube Stark's 17 points didn't help any. An eight-point rally for Carnegie tied the score at the half, and they continued after the intermission for six more before the Titans registered. After tying the score several times, Westminster lost out in the final two minutes. It was the first time in a decade that the United Presbyterians had lost two home games in one season. So many jammed the box-office for the tilt that scores were turned away. Neither sitting nor standing room was available.

THE FIRST SIX

Ralph Gilliland, Paul Backus, Andy Demo, and John Krivosih pulled off their blue and white uniforms for the last time. A student pep rally on the eve of the Tech game was held in their honor. Both Backus and Demo were named on nearly every all-star district five, with the former being rated by many as the outstanding center in the East. Andy was a choice on nearly every all-opponent team.

Demo rang up 295 points in 20 contests for a game average of nearly 15 points, far ahead on the district heap. Sophomore Mel Miller was the next Titan with 191 markers.

The complete 1937-38 squad was made up of Paul Backus, Perry Black, Dan Mamula, Tom Patton, Fred Meider, Harvey Mercer, Harold Pfau, Ken Grubb, Ralph Gilliland, Tony Valicenti, Albert Lindsay, John Krivosih, Andrew Demo, Ed Stephens and Mel Miller. Managers were Frank Bretthole, Ken Andrews, Norman Rose, and Richard Kennedy.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS

Under the generalship of David Boyd, fraternity rivalry was minimized, and class and independent competition were given equal emphasis. Beginning the season, the TUO's, led by Krivosh and Dunn, won the touch football loop. An all-star team was selected which included Davis, Lukon, Dahlburg, Stewart, Grubb, Lauterbach, McGeech, Dunn and Krivosh.

In the interfraternity cage competition the TUO's led all three groups, as Bill Weddle topped the scoring. Mr. Boyd set up a precedent as he initiated an independent cage loop. The Town Boys defeated the Full House team, winners of first half honors. High point men for this league were Kermit Patton, C. Smiley, and Ken Smith.

In an abbreviated ping-pong league the TUO's captured all three titles and the Kaps were runners-up in all three leagues. Outstanding players were Kennedy, Weddle, McGeech, Jamison, and Ken Smith.

In the final intramural competition the Kaps ran off with singles honors as they remained undefeated for the second consecutive year. In doubles competition the TUO's nosed out the Kaps in their final encounter. Jamison, Ewalt, and Ken Smith were members of the undefeated team. In the interclass competition the Freshmen defeated the Seniors in the final round.
